

The World Needs You!

LEARN KHMER (CAMBODIAN)

www.hawaii.edu/khmer

Khmer (also known as Cambodian) is the official language of Cambodia. Khmer is one of the oldest written language in Southeast Asia. Its records date back to 611 A.D.

Learn Khmer helps you understand the social and cultural aspects of its people, before and after the period of ANGKOR WAT and the massacre of the KILLING FIELDS.

Visit Cambodia now, meet its people, taste its exotic cuisine, and view the splendid ancient temples found in all parts of the country.

Fulfill UH foreign language requirements and the Certificate in Khmer.

Get an edge on career opportunities.

Contact: Department of Hawaiian & Indo-Pacific Languages and Literatures at (808) 956-8672; or the Khmer Language Coordinator, Dr. Chhany Sak-Humphry at sak@hawaii.edu

SPRING 2005

CAM 102
Beginning Khmer
(Outreach College)

CAM 202
Intermediate Khmer
(Outreach College/Online)

CAM 302
Third-Level Khmer
(Outreach College/Online)

CAM 415
Khmer language in the Media